

2021 WTS Metropolitan Phoenix Scholarships

Logistical barriers can sometimes stand between worthy candidates and their objectives. The WTS Metropolitan Phoenix Chapter and its partners are offering seven scholarships totaling $21,500 to assist students who aspire to professional careers in transportation. Scholarship summaries and application materials can be found on the scholarship page at www.wtsinternational.org/chapters/metro-phoenix/scholarships

The Helene M. Overly/Esther Kmetty Scholarship is awarded to a woman pursuing graduate studies in transportation who demonstrates a strong commitment to the community. The local scholarship amount is $3,000.

The Sharon D. Banks Memorial Undergraduate Scholarship is awarded to a woman pursuing an undergraduate degree. Applicants must be currently enrolled in a full-time undergraduate degree program in a transportation-related field. The local scholarship amount is $2,500.

The Molitoris Leadership Fund for Undergraduates is awarded to a woman who demonstrates leadership in the transportation industry. Applicants must be currently enrolled in a full-time undergraduate degree program in a transportation-related field. The local scholarship amount is $2,500.

In partnership with WTS, the Arizona Transit Association is offering the AzTA Transit Planning Graduate Scholarship to a woman pursuing graduate studies in urban planning, engineering, public health, public administration, or transportation planning. This scholarship amount is $2,500 and includes free participation in all AzTA events for the academic year.

NEW THIS YEAR! In partnership with the WTS Metropolitan Phoenix Chapter, the Friends of Transit is offering the Friends of Transit: Wulf Grote Legacy Scholarship to an applicant of any gender pursuing a graduate or undergraduate degree in a transportation-related field. This scholarship is being offered for 2021 only. The scholarship honors Wulf Grote's 35 years of service as a leader in public transportation development in the Phoenix Metropolitan Area. The scholarship amount is $3,500.

In partnership with WTS, the Friends of Transit Scholarship is awarded to an applicant of any gender pursuing undergraduate or graduate studies in a full-time degree program in public transit or a transportation-related field with plans to pursue a career in the transit industry. This scholarship is in the amount of $2,500.

In partnership with WTS, the Support Sky Harbor Coalition Scholarship is awarded to an applicant or multiple applicants of any gender pursuing undergraduate or graduate studies in an aviation-related field. Applicants must demonstrate strong leadership skills and campus and community involvement. This scholarship amount is up to $5,000.

Applications are due by Wednesday, December 1, 2021.
Applications must be submitted to the Scholarship Committee at metrophoenix@wtsinternational.org

